PULLEN GETS YEAR AND ONE DAY IN PENITENTIARY

Many Other Matters Taken Up When Court Reconvenes Yesterday

After a discontinuance of one week, while the territorial supreme court was in session at Phoenix, the district court was resumed here yesterday. A few criminal matters had been pending since the recent adjournment, were disposed of and a number of civil cases dismissed.

P. E. Pullen, who was recently found guilty of grand larceny, after the jury had previously disagreed, was sentenced to one year and one day in the territorial penitentiary. Sentence dates from yesterday and the prisoner will be taken to Florence at once.

G. S. Williams, who was indicted with Pullen on the same charge, and who was found guilty of petty larceny, was sentenced to six months in the county jail, sentence to date from May 9.

Both men were charged with the theft of two suit cases at Winkelman. The attachment suit of J. C. Gatti and W. H. Parks vs. the Independence Development company, which has been pending for more than two years, was dismissed on motion of the plaintiff.

In addition, the suits of the Ohio Pottery & Glass company vs. the Old Dominion Commercial company, and B. Berwatt vs. the First National bank, all old suits, were dismissed by consent.

The damage suit of James A. Rice vs. the Inspiration Copper company, was also dismissed. It is understood that this matter was settled out of court.

The suit of J. B. Ballard et al. vs. John Rose et al., an action to quiet title to mining property, was dismissed, but will be continued on a cross complaint.

The injunction suit of Charles T. Martin and Sarah Martin vs. Quinn Brothers, an action to secure possession of the Martin theater, was continued until Saturday, for hearing on the application for a temporary injunction.

The court will probably hear non jury matters for the next several days, it being the intention to call a new jury about June 11, to hear a number of civil cases which are to receive jury trials.

BANDIT SUICIDES IN PREFERENCE TO ARREST

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 25.—After holding a mob at bay for nine teen blocks, an unknown bandit shot himself in the head at noon today after he had tried to hold up the grocery store of M. S. Williams, at 1630 Eleventh street.

When the man entered the store, Williams shouted an alarm. The robber fled and immediately a crowd formed and hung to his heels. The robber fired three shots at the crowd without harm, and was in turn wounded by a charge of buckshot fired by E. Stadler. When the police finally headed the robber off he turned the revolver on himself. Nothing on the body would lead to identification, though the coroner is investigating a report that the bandit is named Jack Graham, of Visalia.

APACHE SUSPECT IS CAPTURED

Charged with Having Killed His Wife in North Over Two Weeks Ago

An Apache Indian, reported to be No. 121, but no believed to be I 21, who is charged with having murdered his squaw in Carrizo canyon in the northern part of the county nearly two weeks ago, has been captured by Deputy Sheriff Bud Armer, according to advices received at the sheriff's office yesterday.

Deputy Sheriff Ralph Sturgis left for the White River reservation for the prisoner, immediately upon receipt of the news of his capture. The Indian will be brought back to Globe at once and held a prisoner until a formal investigation can be made of the affair. According to reports from the north, the Indian shot his squaw while drunk and immediately started for the Snowflake district in an effort to evade arrest. Bud Armer was assigned to the case and after tracking the Redskin for several days, finally surprised and captured him a long distance from the scene of the murder and escorted him to White River, where he is now held.
